

Observatoires

The National Telecommunications Regulatory Agency (ANRT) observatories provide quarterly figures on the evolution of the main market indicators in the Kingdom of Morocco.

According to current regulations, observatories ANRT provide information on the key figures of the telecommunications sector in Morocco. They cover different market segments and services (fixed, mobile, Internet) and domain names .ma and respect ethical rules of impartiality and neutrality.

Telecommunications market analysis

The “Market Analysis” provides quarterly analysis of the fixed, mobile, and internet,... markets evolution. This report is in French and in English.

Go to market analysis.

Mobile telephony quarterly report

This report provides information on the evolution of the mobile market. It is published in French and English.

Go to the mobile telephony quarterly report.

Fixed telephony quarterly report

This report provides quarterly information on the evolution of the fixed market. It is published in French and English.

Go to the fixed telephony quarterly report.

“Payphone” quarterly report

This report provides quarterly information on the evolution of the payphone market. It is published in French and English.

Go to the “payphone” observatory quarterly report.

Internet quarterly report

This report provides quarterly information on the evolution of the Internet market. It is published in French and English.

Go to the Internet observatory quarterly report.

“.ma” domain name quarterly report

This report provides the quarterly evolution figures on the allocation of “.ma” domain names.

Go to the “.ma” domain name quarterly report.

Source URL: <https://www.anrt.ma/en/indicateurs/observatoires>
